HGC Opens Up to Percipio's e-Learning Platform Equipping staff with digital skills to support our digital transformation drive

Hong Kong, 18 October 2018 – HGC Global Communications Limited (HGC), a full-fledged fixed-line operator and ICT service provider with extensive local and international network coverage and infrastructure, is pleased to announce today that HGC has adopted Percipio, the market-leading intelligent learning platform to accelerate and facilitate the organizational and personal growth of HGC and its multi-generational modern learners.

Empowering the entire staff for digital transformation

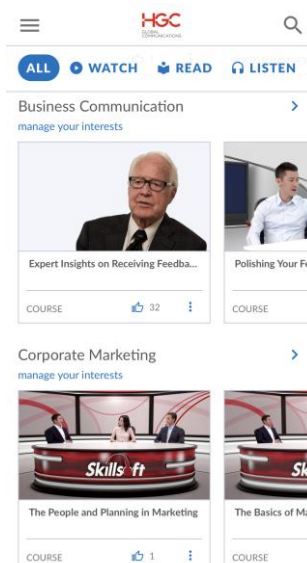

In embracing digital transformation, HGC is deploying digital technology internally as well as in delivering world-class digital services to customers. It has established a Percipio e-Learning platform to ensure personal and organisational growth. HGC is dedicated to equipping HGC staff for continuous development, with a comprehensive e-learning content portfolio that ranges from IoT app creation to workplace diversity.

Accelerating the digital learning revolution with Percipio

Percipio will enable HGC staff to learn on-the-go efficiently and effectively. Offering targeted videos, courses, books and audio from world-class thought leaders, as well as tailored topics for HGC personnel, HGC employees will be empowered with the professional knowledge required to complete courses and obtain professional certifications. At the same time, HGC will provide external qualified learning opportunities such as external workshops and seminars to selected employees for further skills development.

Andrew Kwok, Chief Executive Officer of HGC, said, "People are definitely a company's most valuable asset.

While we work for the continuous growth of our company, we hope to lead the staff to grow with us as well, both professionally and personally.” He added, “HGC is eager to boost individual and corporate competitiveness in the long-term while bringing more insights into the industry. Looking forward, HGC will uphold its vision to bring advanced communications technologies to communities and individuals for sustainable growth and development in the Digital Era.”

“Technology-driven organisations such as HGC are at the forefront of digital transformation. Percipio is pleased to work with HGC to help it stay competitive and support its digital transformation projects by providing continuous development of digital capabilities across the organisation,” says Robert Hartsough, Senior Vice President – Global Content, Skillsoft. “With Percipio, HGC is supporting its employees to be prepared and capable in this digital age, where change is constant.”
